

Family Court Support Program

The Family Court Support Program assists women who have experienced domestic violence and are involved in the family court process.

A Family Court Support Worker will:

- Provide support for women who have experienced domestic violence and are in the family court process.
- Assist and support women with recording the history of abuse.
- Provide information about the family court process.
- Provide referrals for specialized services in the community.
- Accompany women to lawyer's appointments and court proceedings where appropriate.
- Assistance with Legal Aid.
- Assistance with completing documents.

What if I cannot afford a lawyer?

You may be able to get help from Legal Aid Ontario. Legal Aid Ontario helps low-income people get legal assistance through a broad range of services. You must be financially eligible to receive most of these services.

Call Legal Aid Ontario to find out if you are eligible. Legal Aid Ontario also offers many services over the phone. You do not have to meet any financial requirements for general information and referrals.

The Family Court Support Worker can help guide you through this process.
