

Transitional Support Program

The Transitional and Housing Support Program offers services to women and their children who have experienced domestic violence, to help them connect with community supports and find and maintain safe housing.

A Transitional Support Worker provides referrals to resources such as:

- Financial support services.
- Employment services.
- Supports regarding educational upgrading assistance.
- Other applicable community supports.

To inquire about the Transitional Support Program:
613-966-3074 or toll-free at 1-800-267-0533