

TRANSITIONAL HOUSING PROGRAM

The Transitional and Housing Support Program offers services to women and their children who have experienced abuse, to help them connect with community supports and find and maintain safe housing.

A Transitional Support Worker provides referrals to resources such as:

Financial support services.

Employment services.

Supports regarding educational upgrading.

Other applicable community supports.

To inquire about this program call:

 613-966-3074

Learn more at www.threeoaks.ca

Three Oaks Foundation offers a shelter and services to women and their children who have experienced domestic violence. Services are offered in Hastings and Prince Edward Counties. All services are free and confidential.